Fall Session 2014

General Information

- 1. Tone and Attitude: One of the purposes of this course is to hone our skills in dealing with difficult life situations. Therefore, all written posts, emails, responses, and papers will be evaluated for the student's ability to express their disagreement with an issue in a Christian and professional manner. A negative tone or attitude toward the course facilitator or fellow students will not be tolerated. Disagreements should be handled professionally and spiritually.
- 2. Participation: Participation in an online learning environment is vital to the successful completion of this course of study. Communication may be via phone, email or a personal visit. Each student should contact the Professor at least once during the course. Participation in the course includes applicable comments and questions in the course.
- 3. Assessment: To assist the Professor in the ongoing assessment of student learning and achievement, students are asked to complete the confidential, internet-based assessment of learning for each course experience. The link to the survey will be provided at the conclusion of the course.
- 4. Corrective Action: The course facilitator has the option to dismiss any student who does not comply with the standards of the course.
- 5. Contact: Questions regarding assignments should be addressed to the instructor at hep@professorphanor.com.
